IMPACT REPORT 2018

September 2017 (incorporation) to December 2018

MAINTENANT Sustaining Now is a social enterprise teaching the Science of Sustainable Development to schools and young adults through campaigns, workshops and games.

Our mission is to empower children, adults and the whole community to adapt their lifestyles now for a better future.

ACHIEVEMENTS

We delivered workshops, campaigns and games based our own innovative educational methodology.

STEAM Science Technology Engineering Arts Mathematics

Our children have been able to reflect on how sustainable development can be achieved in practical ways. The work they have carried out is something still talked about!
